

Local Author Series

with Joseph Policape

reading and
book signing

May 5, 7:00pm
at Books &
Sundry

Learn more about the author and register online at www.booksandsundryshop.com

Joseph P. Policape is a poet, writer, and thinker. In the early 2000s, he took the love of reading and writing and used that combination to turn himself into an author.

Policape is the author of four poetry collections, a short storybook, two novels, and a novella. His last publication is a historical novel based on Haitian's struggle with a dictatorship government in the 80s. Policape is an author that cannot be ignored as he captures people's lives through his multiple disciplinary talents as a writer, poet, minister, and counselor.